

Sample Title

by Sample Author

TeachingBooks®

Pick a scene and reflect on the relationship among images, text, and story. Explain how the images reflect, complement, or contradict the words or story.

Empty response box for reflecting on the relationship among images, text, and story.

Consider the page layout. How does the panel size reflect or emphasize what is happening in the narrative?

Empty response box for considering the page layout and panel size.

What colors do you notice in the images? How do colors and contrasts affect the tone of the book?

Empty response box for discussing colors and contrasts in the images.

Sample Title

by Sample Author

Graphic Novel Vocab: Select 2-3 of these terms related to the graphic novel, define the term, and explain how it functions in the narrative.

Panel Frame Gutter Speech Balloon Caption

Bleed Emanata Foreground Midground Background

[Empty box for student response]

Choose an image with a background scene. What information do you learn from the background?

[Empty box for student response]

What visual repetitions do you see? How do these repetitions fit into the story?

[Empty box for student response]